DILEMMA

Watching television teaches you how to cope in this world

Every possible dilemma solved within the allotted timeslot

My toy koalas had a visitor
A real live one!
He squashed one of mine
when using it as a stepping stone Fair knocked the stuffing out of it!

I sweep the garden path

Last New Year's Eve
the kids burst in on us with the video camera at midnight
We hid under the doona until the chaos subsided

Now my son's belongings burst from the shed and flow across the front yard

I keep watching television assured that one day
it will show the way to cope with this scenario

The closest thing so far is Parliament Question Time You keep squabbling till the cameras are turned off
