

NOTES TO CONTRIBUTORS

QAR accepts manuscripts of variable length that relate to archaeology in its many facets and which are shown in some way to be relevant to Queensland and adjacent research areas. Manuscripts should be submitted as hard copy as well as on computer disk or CD with files formatted using Microsoft® WORD.

Referencing and bibliographic style should follow that used in recent volumes of QAR. References should be cited in text by author's surname, publication year, and page (e.g. Smith 1988:45). Do not use footnotes.

Illustrations (Figures) should be submitted either as original black-and-white line drawings not exceeding 16cm x 24cm in size, or JPEG or TIFF images on computer disk or CD accompanied by high-resolution prints. Photocopies of drawings are not acceptable. Number illustrations consecutively. Captions should be on a separate sheet (or file). Tables should be submitted on disk in separate files using Microsoft® EXCEL or Microsoft® WORD. Captions should be on a separate sheet (or file). Photographs (Plates) should be high-contrast glossy black and white prints and must not exceed the dimensions, 24cm x 16cm. Captions should be separate. If not your own work, you must acknowledge the origin of the print and, where applicable, supply written unfettered permission to publish from the owner of the original.

Authors will be notified within 90 days as to whether or not their manuscript is accepted. Referees' reports will be attached whether or not the manuscript is accepted. Authors will receive page proofs for correction prior to printing. A copy of the QAR volume in which your article appears will be sent to you free of charge.

All correspondence should be addressed to Jay Hall, QAR Editor, Archaeology Program, School of Social Science, The University of Queensland, Brisbane, Queensland, Australia, 4072. Alternatively it may be sent electronically to: j.hall@mailbox.uq.edu.au
